Things To Do In Weatherford, Oklahoma

Dean Rader, English, College of Arts and Sciences, University of San Francisco rejoice you don't live in Clinton eat fried onion burgers at the grill drive by one of seven Baptist churches pray at the Catholic one scare your cousin at Little Ruffie's grave drive your grandfather's Lincoln onto the runway at the airport swear to remember every star be grateful you don't live in Hydro break into the junkyard spray your friends with the fire extinguisher you stole from the junior high gymnasium steal a fire extinguisher from the junior high gymnasium watch your mother dance to Stevie Wonder practice your curveball ride your bike to Dead Woman's Crossing wait for the tornado siren to end remember arrival is not the opposite of departure loiter in front of the girl's dormitory at the university pretending you belong drive your grandfather's golf cart with him in it sneak vodka into the Putt-Putt take your grandmother to the library get cheese tater tots at Sonic maybe a cherry limeade but not at Braum's know every street consider the dead beneath Ghost Mound drag main even with your sister & her friends belong at the Rodeo ground & the Ag barn go on harvest give thanks you don't live in Burns Flat climb onto the roof of the high school watch the college girls emerge from the cowboy bar mow your grandparents' yard use the bag imagine the day you no longer mow drive and drive and drive and drive and listen to the Gap Band listen to Led Zeppelin listen to the night song of crickets and bullfrogs listen to your father snore in one of the churches believe in the holiness of the tractor and combine kneel before the gold altar of wheat light ask the lord for forgiveness when you don't and when you don't know why
