The dissertation/thesis/Master's Project is a scholarly work presenting the results of the candidate's research to the scholarly community. The University of San Francisco believes a candidate should make this research available to other scholars for the benefit of the author, the University, and the scholarly community. However, under the Copyright Act of 1976 (Copyright Act), an author may reserve all rights over his/her work, and thereby limit the availability of the work to others. Furthermore, under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (Privacy Act), a thesis/dissertation/Master's Project may be considered a protected, private academic record.

Therefore, in order to comply with the Privacy and Copyright Acts, we ask that students elect one of the two options under each category below:

I. PRIVACY ACT (1974)

I hereby voluntarily waive my right to keep my academic records confidential under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 by agreeing to allow the University of San Francisco to make available to the University community and the public a copy of my thesis/dissertation/Master's Project entitled:

TITLE Energy Efficiency Retrofit & decarbonization of old & historic buildings in California
Author's Signature [Signature] Date 12-15-2022

OR

I do not waive my right to keep my academic records confidential and do not agree to allow the University of San Francisco to make available to the University community and the public a copy of my thesis/dissertation/Master's Project.
