INTRODUCING TOM WAYMAN

Selected Poems

Tom Wayman

$9.95 cloth; $4.95 paper*

"Whether Wayman is writing social satire, love poems, comic self-portraits, or history, his poems work. There's a distinctive voice here, a real compassion. . . . Waiting for Wayman is worth it," wrote Linda W. Wagner about the first book of one of Canada's foremost younger poets. Now, for the first time, Wayman's work is available in the U.S.

THREE PLAYS

Joyce Carol Oates

$39.95 deluxe; $9.95 cloth; $4.95 paper*

This first collection of plays by one of America's most distinguished writers includes "Ontological Proof of My Existence," "Miracle Play," and "The Triumph of the Spider Monkey," with a preface by the playwright. "Ontological Proof" was hailed by Newsweek after its off-Broadway performance as possessing "like so much of Miss Oates's work . . . the disquieting superbright clarity of a dream that is the real reality of people's lives."

A GALLERY OF SPIDERS

Poems

John R. Reed

$9.95 cloth; $4.95 paper*

The first collection of poems by a Detroit poet whose work has been acclaimed by Robert Phillips as "both reflectively intelligent and imaginatively daring . . . poems which repeatedly reward for their careful construction and their caring about hidden potentials both past and present."

The editors invite contributions of all kinds, especially fiction and poetry, and wish to encourage dialogues between the humanities, creative arts, and human sciences. They welcome essays, especially of an intercultural nature, that deal with 20th-century Canadian and American writers and artists, particularly those who have not received much critical attention in the past. Contributors are asked to include a brief biographical note.
